JOSIAH, A ROYAL REFORMER

LESSON TEXT—II Kings 22:1-8; 23:1-3.

GOLDEN TEXT—Thy word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Josiah Finds God's Book.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Josiah's Rare Find.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Getting Help from the Bible.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The World's Debt to Reformers.

I. Josiah a Godly Young King (22:1, 2).

He did that which was right in the sight of the Lord and turned not aside to the right hand or to the left. About one hundred years elapsed between the reformation under Hezekiah and that of Josiah. Sometime during this period the book of God's law had been lost. Two wicked kings had reigned in the interval. The Lord had given to Hezekiah great wealth. His son, Manasseh, coming into possession of his father's property and being ungodly would naturally neglect the Bible, if not purposely try to put it from sight. Those who do not obey the word of God are usually interested in putting it out of sight.

II. Finding the Book of the Law (22:3-10).

1. The occasion (vv. 3-8).

It was while restoring the temple during Josiah's reformation that the law was discovered. In clearing out the dark corners to make repairs and to find a place to store the subscriptions made by the people, many things which had been lost were found, among which was the law.

2. The Book read before the king (vv. 9, 10).

Upon making a report of the work to the king Shaphan informed him of the finding of the book of the law of the Lord, and the book was read by Shaphan before the king.

III. The Effect of the Reading of the Law (vv. 11-20).

1. The king rent his clothes (v. 11).

As the law was read before him he was led to realize the awful extent of the nation's departure from God. He knew that sin merited punishment. The rending of the royal robes indicated the king's penitence and sorrow.

2. The king sent a deputation to make inquiry of the Lord (vv. 12-20).

He included himself in the guilt before God (v. 13). His sense of sin was so keen that he sent to inquire of the Lord as to whether there was any means of diverting the divine judgments. Instinctively the human heart turns from God's threatening judgments to a means of escape.

3. The message of Huldah, the prophetess (vv. 15-20).

(1) Confirmation of what the law said (vv. 15-17).

She said that all the curses written in the law must follow, for the sins had been so flagrant that God's wrath could not be restrained. It was not too late, however, upon repentance to obtain mercy from God, but the outward consequences of sin must be realized.

(2) Acceptance of Josiah's repentance (vv. 18-20).

Because of his tenderness of heart and deep penitence, the Lord said he should be gathered to his grave in peace and should not see all the evil brought on Jerusalem and its people. What Huldah said was true though Josiah died in battle (II Chron. 35:22-25).

IV. Reforms Instituted (23:1-25).

1. The king read the law (vv. 1, 2).

He gathered together the inhabitants of Jerusalem, including the priests, Levites, and elders, and read unto them the law.

2. The king made a covenant before the Lord (v. 3).

In this covenant he pledged himself:

(1) "To walk before the Lord."

This meant that he would get personally right with God.

(2) To "keep God's commandments and his testimonies and his statutes."

This obedience was of the heart.

(3) "To perform the words of the covenant which were written in this book."

The king not only entered into this sincerely, but caused all that were present to "stand to" it.

3. The king took away the abominations (vv. 4-20).

He not only broke down the places of idolatrous worship, but slew the priests who officiated at the altar.

4. Passover kept (vv. 21-23).

So fully and heartily did they enter into this reformation that this Passover was unlike any that had been held since the days of the Judges.

5. Workers of the occult driven out (vv. 24, 25).

All the days of the king they departed not from following after the Lord.

Must Follow in His Steps

Sincere we must be, some sacrifices we must make, and for the rest we must follow in the steps of the Lord till we grow into his likeness. It is a splendid endeavor, and in its very difficulties and elevation lie its greatness and its success.—John Watson.

Prayer

Prayer is the pulse of the renewed soul; and the constancy of its beat is the test and measure of the spiritual life.—Octavius Winslow.

WHAT'S HAPPENING IN VIRGINIA

In almost every section of Virginia the drought continued unabated last week-end, and farmers were faced with still greater losses and still greater reductions in their crop yields, while cattle and other livestock suffered from lack of water. Rainfall in the Commonwealth since the Federal government was asked to render aid to the agriculturists has been of slight benefit, according to information reaching Harry F. Byrd Jr., chairman of the Virginia Drought Relief Commission.

Eighty-four of Virginia's 100 counties had been designated as drought areas last week-end, and appointment of county and Red Cross agencies was going forward steadily. A total of $200,000 has been advanced by the Federal government for loans to Virginia farmers unable otherwise to buy seed and crops for fall pastures. Railroads serving Virginia have said into the State treasury over $500,000 in taxes which were not due until October 1, thus enabling the State to maintain its balance of more than $6,000,000 in 200 banks, most of them in country districts and thus to extend credit to drought-striken farmers.

The Drought has struck a blow to almost every business activity, and its full effects may not yet have been felt, according to the monthly review of business conditions in the Fifth Federal Reserve District, issued by W. W. Hoxton of Richmond. The Report says that prices for both cotton and tobacco are discouraging.

Senator Carter Glass will have no serious opposition for reelection to the Senate in November. The Republican State Convention at Roanoke decided not to put a candidate in the field against him, and to concentrate on the Congressional Districts in which the party has candidates. J. Cloyd Byars, of Arlington, is opposing Senator Glass as an independent, and C. Morgan, of Newington, is campaigning against him on the Socialistic ticket, but neither is expected to give him any serious trouble. Thus the Lynchburg solon, who was marked for slaughter by the Cannonites following the 1928 campaign, will go back to Washington without a fight.

The five districts in which the G. O. P. has nominated candidates, together with the Democratic candidates in those districts, follow: Second, Menelcus Lankford, Republican incumbent, and Joseph T. Deal, Democrat; Seventh, Jocob A. Garber, Republican incumbent, and John W. Fishbourne, Democrat; Eigth, F. M. Brooks, Republican, and Howard W. Smith, Democrat; Ninth, Joseph C. Shaffer, Republican incumbent, and John W. Flannagan, Democrat; Tenth, H. St. George Tucker, Democrat incumbent. In the other five districts the Democratic incumbents are unopposed.

The number of farms in Virginia has decreased 15,213 or 8.2 per cent since 1920, according to Federal census figures just announced. Wise County, with an increase of 767 farms, showed the largest increase in the Commonwealth, both numerically and by percentages, while Augusta led in percentage of decrease and Fairfax in numerical decrease.

The mass producer and distributor is more apt to drive the United States to Bolshevism than the man who waves a red flag and boosts Russia from a soapbox, Dr. Saunders, editor of the Elizabeth City, N. C., Independent, said famous for his appearances on the streets in pajamas, told the Richmond Chamber of Commerce in an address last week. "We keep on becoming more efficient in the production of goods, but we won't have the consumers for what we make", he declared, pointing out in his opinion, the population of this country will be static by 1970.

Teachers representing the nine schools throughout Virginia which are offering home economics education under the George Reed fund, met in Richmond for a two-day conference last week. The schools are situated at Appomattox, Bridgewater, Charlotte Courthouse, Chester, Holland, Hopewell, Lincoln, Rural Retreat & Ivano. Under the George Reed Bill enacted by Congress in 1921, about $8,000 was set aside for this work in Virginia this year.

An order for sixteen fawns and five grown deer of the Virginia white-tailed species, has been placed by the Commission of Game and Inland Fisheries with the United States Forestry service. They are to be liverated in Tazewell County, where there is no open season on deer.

Damage estimated at $250,000 was caused by a fire which destroyed a storage building of the Lane Company, at Altavista, largest cedar chest makers in the world. No less than 15,000 cedar chests were destroyed in the blaze. The number of chests in storage at the time of the fire was considerably larger than usual, owing to the depressed market.

Alleging that freight rates on shipments of fresh or green vegetables from points in Virginia to points east of the Mississippi River are unjust and unreasonable, H. E. Ketner, commerce counsel to the State corporation Commission, has filed a complaint with the Interstate Commerce Commission asking a general rate revision. The case involves 42,000 carload shipments annually from Virginia and freight charges running high into the millions of dollars. Virtually all varieties of fresh and green vegetables are included.

State Prohibition Inspectors J. T. Rexrode and A. H. Dickson were suspended by Attorney-General John R. Saunders, following receipt by him of reports that the two men had been suspected of failing to turn in to the proper authorities part of 700 pounds of sugar seized by them in a raid in Augusta County. The Attorney-General launched an investigation with a view to determining the truth of the charges. Dickson is the dry agent who was recently reinstated by Col. Sidney Peyton Hill, Commissioner of Prohibition, after he had been dismissed by Col. Hill on charges of drunkenness. Dickson was fired at the time Rexrode and Saunders were suspended, but was reinstated after he had been cleared of the charges. Dickson said he was fired at the time.

C. Bascom Slemp, Republican National Committeeman from Virginia, has been named by President Hoover Commissioner-General in charge of American participation in the 1931 French Colonial Exposition at Paris. He has sailed for France to make preliminary arrangements.

Shortages of about $25,000 each have been discovered in the accounts of Treasurer J. Stuart Ham, of Albermarle County and Treasurer Eppa Sox, of Fauquier County. The board of supervisors in each county is said to be disposed to give both men additional time in which to make up the deficits. Treasurer Ham had a shortage of $34,000 about a year ago, and has reduced the amount by about $8,500, while Treasurer Cox states that he will shortly be able to curtail his shortage by about $14,000.

The Slemp organization showed complete mastery of the situation at the Third District Republican Convention in Richmond, and all business was transacted by a unanimous vote. Opposing forces had been decisively defeated in the Richmond Convention on the previous day, and in Chesterfield County two days before, the only county in the district where serious opposition showed itself. Joseph P. Brandy, clerk of the United States District Court, and other office-holders who had been under fire from members of the party, regarded the outcome as a vindication of their position.

Mystery surrounds the finding at Williamsburg of 100 skeletons in the old garden of the Governor's Palace. It is supposed that the men were soldiers, but that they died in a hospital of some sort. The fact that the arms of every skeleton are folded across the chest indicates that they all died in bed. The graves in the Palace Garden were in three long straight lines.

Two county officials in Bedford County have voluntarily offered to have their salaries reduced as a drought relief measure. V. W. Nichols, clerk of the circuit court and the board of supervisors, stated that he would be willing to have his compensation cut from $1,200 to $800 per annum, while Sheriff J. L. Marshall offered to have his stipend cut from $1,200 to $900.

"John Garland", the given name of Virginia's governor, has been suggested to a Campbell County mother by Dr. W. A. Plecker, State Registrar of Vital Statistics, in reply to a request that he suggest a name for her tenth child. "Send us a name for the son", she wrote. "We are out of names".

Family Re-Union

The family of Z. N. Harris gathered in the grove near Mr. Henry Almond's home and had a pleasant time on Sunday, Aug. the 31st, when the family had a re-union and spread an old time Virginia dinner. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Z. N. Harris and seven children, thirty-eight grandchildren, four son-in-laws, two daughter-in-laws, Mrs. Edward Almond and two children were absent on account of her illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas. of Bedford, were present, Mr. and Mrs. Eagle Thomas, of Roanoke, Mr. Stanley, of Bedford, Mr. and Mrs. Walker Garrett, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McFadden, and Mrs. Henry Almond and family, Miss Ruth Jefferson, of Roanoke., 72 present in all.

Mrs. Cora Moshier, of 601 North New Orleans Ave., Brinkley, Ark., writes: "I was confined until I was just sick. I could not stand to take strong medicine, so I decided I would take Black-Draught, and I found it to be so true.

"I would have such dizzy spells, I've sat such bursting headaches, until I could hardly go. But after taking a few doses of Black-Draught, I would feel just fine. It is a good medicine, and I recommend it to all who suffer as I did. It is very easy to recommend a medicine that has done as much for me as Black-Draught has done."

The new road being built from the Cumberland county highway to connect with the highway again at Sprouse's corner is nearing completion and it is likely that this road force which is composed of convicts laborers mostly will be moved to a point near here to continue on to Bent Creek.

Fair Not Called Off

The Times-Virginian—In reply to article in your last week's issue offered by "observer" and also the "rumor" around that we are not going to have a fair this year, I will state officially that we will have a fair and it will open on six P. M., Tuesday, Sept. 16, and run day and night through Saturday, Sept. 20. Although the officials of the association realize the condition of the farm products it is too late to call off the fair as we have under contract a good clean carnival; Frank Stanley's Rodeo, and shall give more elaborate than ever shown here, these fireworks have already been delivered to us. Due to the conditions surrounding us, we are putting forth special effort to give the people of this neighborhood more for their money than they have ever gotten at this fair or any fair of our size and we hope that our farmers will bring all the products they can possibly bring for exhibit. I will state also that regarding the shows of "questionable character" I will not tolerate any that come under this head and if there are any complaints to be made I hope they will come directly to me so that I may clean out the dirt and make the Appomattox Fair a clean, square deal, educational and entertaining exhibition.

terday for a visit to friends and relatives in Radford.

Mrs. M. G. Willis, son, Marion, and daughter, Caroline, left Tuesday for a boat trip to Boston and other New England points.

Mrs. Luther Morris and son, Garland, left last week for a visit of several days to friends and relatives in Roanoke.

Miss Mary Hill and Miss Eleanor Clarke, of Pearisburg, are visiting their friend, Miss Marion Wagner, near town.

Mrs. L. E. Morris had the misfortune to fall and break her arm last week, but is getting along nicely.

Miss Frankie McKinney has returned home after spending the summer with her aunt, Mrs. Penick, in Lynchburg. She also spent several weeks with friends in Mt. Hope, N. C.

Will Painter, mayor of Radford, was here today and called to see his relatives, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Burkey and family.

Mrs. Neal Poore has returned from Atlantic City and other northern points and was en route to his home at Radford.

Delegates to the State Convention at Staunton are Mrs. D. N. Twyman and Miss Louise Gills, with Mesdames L. Crawley and W. B. Caldwell as alternates.

Odell Howerton, delegate at large for the State has returned from Detroit, where he went to represent Virginia at the National Rural Carriers convention which met in that city. When asked the condition of business in Detroit, he said that here seemed to be very much unemployment as he saw long lines of workmen waiting for jobs. The automobile factories were running two or three days a week, reports Mr. Howerton, but there was rain while he was in the city.

The regular meeting of the Appomattox Chapter, U. D. C. was held in the home of Miss Grace Caldwell Thursday. Two very interesting newspaper clippings which had been presented to the chapter by Miss Dora Brooks, on behalf of the Old Dominion Chapter, U. D. C. were read. A marriage of much interest in Appomattox and throughout the State was solemnized Monday evening when Miss Rachel Edwin Ford became the bride of Mr. J. Daniel Ford, of Hixburg. The officiating minister was the bride's pastor, Rev. Mr. Redding, of the local Presbyterian church. The wedding took place at the residence of Dr. C. F. James and only the immediate family was present. The bride was attired in brown with accessories to match.

The bride is the attractive and popular daughter of Mrs. H. L. Zimmerman, of Lynchburg. She is well and favorably known in Appomattox, and she has made her home for several years. The groom is from a prominent Appomattox family and is a prosperous farmer, living on the beautiful Ford estate on the Appomattox river. The best wishes of our entire community go with Mr. and Mrs. Ford.

Bedouin Offers Bag of Gold for Plane Ride

Bagdad.—Carrying a bag containing $8,500 in English sovereigns, a Bedouin recently made his appearance at the headquarters of the Royal Air force. He was anxious to make an air trip to Jerusalem and offered the bag of gold as payment therefor. The money, he said, was given to him by an Englishman during the war and had been kept hidden in the earth. He had no desire to keep the money and no wish to live if he were not allowed a trip in one of the "air birds" which he had seen flying overhead.

Running and Harness Races at Va. State Fair—Richmond

Contests of speed promise to form one of the most interesting features of the 1930 Virginia State Fair which is to be held in Richmond, September 8th to 13th. Virginia's big exhibition opens on Monday, September 8th, and racing begins on Tuesday with a program of four days, with a liberal amount of money offered in purses for both runners and harness horses.

Purses for the runners range from $100 to $65 each, while the trotters and pacers have also been well looked after with $400 for each race and money added, which means that all the entrance fee will be added to the purses and no deductions asked for from the placed horses.

The largest number of runners ever seen at the Richmond races gathered here at the last meeting and the outlook is equally as promising for the forthcoming fair. Harness racing has been eliminated from the State Fair speed program for the past few years, the withdrawal of the trotters and pacers has induced the management to stage classes for various grades of horses. The slowest event to be carded is for horses eligible to the 2:24 class and the fastest event being down to those qualified to start in the 2:10 division of trotting and pacing.

It may be added, too, that the program for runners has been left open on the last day of racing so consolation gusses for horses that have not been placed during the meeting.

A. H. Pendleton, if Chicago, one of the best known starting judges in America, will officiate. The remainder of the officials will be announced in attracting both local and state-wide attention and inquiries are being daily received from different sections. It is true that while the production of thoroughbred breeding and racing stock prevails largely in Northern Virginia, where some of the best horses in America are sent to the tracks, it is also a fact that on the Eastern Shore and in other sections the trotter and pacer still rule supreme and harness racing furnishes a fine order of sport.
